

Guru Ramdas School of Planning

Guru Ramdas School of Planning is proud to announce the call for participation in an Intensive International Short Course on Histories of City Planning from 11th to 15th December, 2017. Professor NezarAlsayyad from Department of City and Regional Planning, University of Berkley, California, USA, shall deliver the lectures. The course is organized under the GIAN (Global Initiative for Academic Networks) initiative of the Government of India. Students, Research Scholars and Professionals, in Planning and allied areas from India as well as International context are eligible participate. We look forward to welcoming the participants for this course and also extend our hospitality in the holy city of Amritsar, India. For registration, please contact the local coordinators, Ms. SakshiSahni(sakshisahni2000@gmail.com) or KiranSandhu (kiransandhu13@gmail.com).